Kids’ Planet is a fun and engaging new educational and entertainment series for kids which reinforces the key values and manners taught to children by parents, grandparents, and teachers, at home and in school. From confidence, humility, and forgiveness, to honesty, responsibility, cooperation, and dignity, the show helps kids understand the importance of being courteous, developing good values, and making smart choices in life.

Our host, Nova, a whimsical young girl, along with her friends and pets, enlightens viewers and takes them on an adventure to explore the world around them. The series strengthens important customs, values, and virtues in a fun, imaginative, and innovative way.
